

IVANHOE BOWLING CLUB

PRIVACY POLICY

Ivanhoe Bowling Club is committed to respecting the right to privacy and the protection of personal information of our members and other persons who engage with Ivanhoe Bowling Club.

When personal information is provided to Ivanhoe Bowling Club

What personal and sensitive information does Ivanhoe Bowling Club collect?

Personal Information

Personal information is information or an opinion (including information or an opinion forming part of a database) from which it is possible to determine someone's identity.

The information collected by Ivanhoe Bowling Club about a person will vary depending on the circumstances of collection. It may include, but is not limited to, a person's contact details (name, email and/or postal address, phone number), date of birth, gender, credit card details, driver's licence number, passport number, insurance details, employment history, qualifications or communication history with Ivanhoe Bowling Club.

Sensitive Information

Sensitive information is a type of personal information that also includes information or an opinion about someone's:

- racial or ethnic origin;
- political opinions;
- membership of a political association, professional or trade association or trade union;
- religious beliefs or affiliations or philosophical beliefs;
- sexual preferences or practices;
- criminal record; or
- health, genetic information or disability.

If it is reasonably necessary in the circumstances, Ivanhoe Bowling Club may also collect sensitive information such as a person's medical history, nationality, their ethnic background or disabilities.

Ivanhoe Bowling Club is required by law to obtain consent when collecting sensitive information.

Ivanhoe Bowling Club will assume consent to the collection of all sensitive information that is provided to it for use in accordance with this policy, unless told otherwise.

How does Ivanhoe Bowling Club collect personal and sensitive information?

Information may be collected when you:

Providing information

Depending on the circumstances, some types of information will be required, and others might be optional. If you do not provide some or all the information requested, this may affect Ivanhoe Bowling Club 's ability to communicate with you or provide the requested products or services.

By not providing requested information, you may jeopardise your ability to participate in programs or competitions or apply for employment or volunteer positions with Ivanhoe Bowling Club. If it is impracticable for Ivanhoe Bowling Club to deal with you because of you not providing the requested information or consent, Ivanhoe Bowling Club may refuse to do so.

Collection from third parties

Ivanhoe Bowling Club may collect personal information regarding a child from the parent or other responsible person associated with that child. In many circumstances, Ivanhoe Bowling Club collects information from other third parties.

Examples of such third parties could include, but is not limited to, the Australian Sports Commission, the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Agency, the Australian Institute of Sport, the Australian Commonwealth Games Association, non-affiliated bowls organisations or government and law enforcement bodies.

Information storage and protection

Ivanhoe Bowling Club stores information in different ways, including in paper and electronic form. Much of the information we collect from and about our members is added to Ivanhoe Bowling Club 's membership database. When your information is entered into Ivanhoe Bowling Club 's membership database, the information may be combined or linked with other information held about you. Ivanhoe Bowling Club 's membership database is shared among Bowls Australia and Bowls Victoria, with each organisation having access to information about Ivanhoe Bowling Club members.

Security of personal information

Ivanhoe Bowling Club has taken steps to protect the information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Some of the security measures Ivanhoe Bowling Club uses includes strict confidentiality requirements of our volunteers and service providers, security measures for system access and security measures for our website.

We seek to protect your personal information from any unauthorised loss, disclosure or access. However, if a serious data breach occurs, we must notify you as required under the Privacy Act regarding the circumstances of the breach, and must also advise the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

How does Ivanhoe Bowling Club use and disclose personal and sensitive information?

Use

Ivanhoe Bowling Club and third parties to whom we may disclose personal information in accordance with this policy, may use your personal information to:

- (a) verify your identity;
- (b) complete background checks;
- (c) research, develop, run, administer and market competitions, programs, activities and other events relating to bowls;
- (d) research or develop and market products, services, merchandise and special offers made available by us and third parties;
- (e) respond to emergency situations involving or requiring medical treatment;
- (f) undertake administrative functions, such as billing;
- (g) administer, manage and provide you with access to <http://www.bowlsvic.org.au/>;
- (h) administer and manage our membership database; and
- (i) keep you informed of news and information relating to various bowls events, activities and opportunities via various mediums.

Ivanhoe Bowling Club may use health information to ensure that programs we operate are run safely and in accordance with any special health needs participants may require. Health information may also be kept for insurance purposes. In addition, we may use de-identified health information and other sensitive information to carry out research, to prepare submissions to government, or to plan events and activities.

Disclosure

Ivanhoe Bowling Club may disclose your personal information to a range of organisations which include, but are not limited to:

- (j) Bowls Victoria, the Yarra Region and other organisations involved in bowls programs in Victoria;
- (k) companies we engage to carry out functions and activities on Ivanhoe Bowling Club 's behalf, including direct marketing;

- (o) in other circumstances permitted by law.

In some circumstances, personal information may also be disclosed outside of Australia - for example personal information is disclosed to World Bowls which is in Scotland. In such circumstances, Ivanhoe Bowling Club will use its best endeavours to ensure such parties are subject to a law, binding scheme or contract which effectively upholds principles for fair handling of the information that are suitably like the Australian Privacy Principles.

Direct marketing

We will assume consent to use non-sensitive personal information to provide better services and for marketing purposes (including disclosure of such information to service providers).

Every person whose data is collected by Ivanhoe Bowling Club has the option to refuse e-mail, SMS or posted offers by making a request in writing to Ivanhoe Bowling Club's Privacy Officer via the contact details set out below or by making use of the opt-out procedures included in any communications from us (however, information relating to the option to unsubscribe from those communications may be retained).

Other disclosures

In addition, Ivanhoe Bowling Club may also disclose personal information:

- (p) with your express or implied consent;
- (q) when required or authorised by law;
- (r) to an enforcement body when reasonably necessary; or
- (s) to lessen or prevent a threat to an individual or public health or safety.

Accessing and seeking correction of information held by Ivanhoe Bowling Club

Ivanhoe Bowling Club will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date. However, we rely on the accuracy of personal information as provided to us both directly and indirectly.

We encourage all users to regularly review and update their personal information. If you would like to access personal information that we hold about you, we require you to put your request in writing. If we do not allow you access to any part of the personal information we hold about you, we will tell you why.

Individuals may also request access to their personal information held by us by making a request via the contact details set out below. We will respond to your request for access within 14 days and refer your request to your club or bowls organisation to provide the requested information. Your club or bowls organisation will endeavour to provide the requested information within 60 days. If you do not receive the requested information, you should notify the Ivanhoe Bowling Club Privacy Officer. If you find that the personal information we hold about you is inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date, please contact us immediately and we will arrange for it to be corrected.

Resolving privacy issues and complaints

Issues

Any issues in relation to the collection, use, disclosure, quality, security of and access to your personal information may be made in writing to:

Privacy Officer, Ivanhoe Bowling Club
